

The JCI Coconut Grove New Board

of members for 2007 stands for growing the organization and being better. It is formed by Adi Quintana – President, Lisa Knight -Membership VP, Michael Glass - Administrative VP, Jane Decker - Community VP, Michael Gold - Business/ID VP, Hernando Gomez - International VP, Lilieth Ordonez - Marketing/Fundraising VP and Elliot Betancourt – Webmaster.

New JCI Members

The new era of JCI Coconut Grove has started in the right way, increasing its membership from the very beginning of the year. Among the new members we have: Marc Blatchley, Isaias Iglesias, Ashanti Johnson, Earl LaChance, Vanessa Madrazo, Stephan Medina, Jeanette Soto, Maureen Urizar and Cristina Bahaio. Thanks folks for joining this great chapter!

Int'l Opportunities Seminar

The International VP, Hernando Gomez, presented the opportunities that can be found in JCI and the international projects to be run during the year, like the new twinning agreements to sign, the international training programs to be held in Miami, the international business and community projects, among others.

Extras

JCI President Mr. Scott Greenlee prepared a short but emotive greeting video for our new members

During the month JCI International members visited the city, among others, the Int'l VPs Jose Maria Deras from Honduras and Ray Jong-A-Lock from Suriname.

During the New Years season the chapter sent more than 500 greeting messages to all the JCI staff headed by the JCI President and to all NOMs around the globe.

Coconut Grove Jaycees

Miami (FL) JCI Chapter

The President Adi attended on behalf the chapter the US Leadership Academy last Jan. 4th to 7th held in Tulsa, Oklahoma.

On Jan.18th the jaycees spent a couple of hours sharing some snacks and gifts with the foster children (ages 3-8) staying at the MacLamore House.

Not everything is work at the chapter; we had much fun in our Happy Hours, this time with MEAPA last Jan.19th

The Collins Center for Public Policy and the Coconut Grove Jaycees have teamed up to present a seminar called "The Impending Crisis: Challenges of the Changing Dynamics of our Economic Future" last Jan.23rd at the Mellon Financial Center in the financial district of Miami.

On Jan.28th took place the first Board Retreat to plan all the amazing projects to be run in the first semester of the year.

Bulletin Design: Jose Figueroa