

2007 JCI-UN Leadership Summit

On June 27 – 29 the JCI-UN Leadership Summit was hosted at the United Nations HQ in New York. The Theme: “Be Better By Keeping the Promise 2015”

Our international member Cornelia (Conny) Stöckli from Zugersee, Switzerland, attended the conference on behalf of JCI Coconut Grove. She enjoyed a 3-day-summit with more than 308 Jaycees from all over the world. This great experience led by JCI-UN Leadership Summit Chairman Keisuke Takana allowed the opportunity to meet the UN General Secretary Ban Ki-Moon and discuss the JCI role in the “Millennium Development Goals” (MDG). The project “Goal for Africa” led by Chris Vermeeren and JCI Senator Robert J. Reinders from Netherland was presented to the general members. (www.goal4africa.org)

the Jaycees enjoyed a very nice cruise organized by the three chapters located in NYC.

On June 21st- a foster child visit took place at the MacLamore House (by Jackson Memorial Hospital). The Jaycees brightened the kids' day with paper flowers, crafts, and painted pots. The children also enjoyed snacks and drinks and had definitely a great time together. Thanks to Jane and Baby D, our Community VP and future baby, for this great commitment and wonderful day!

Report by Cornelia Stöckli

„Ganz JC-getreu war auch das Abendprogramm sehr bereichernd: am Donnerstag Abend haben uns die drei LOM's von New York zu einer Dinner/Party Cruise rund um Manhattan eingeladen. Photos dazu gibt es bei der koreanisch-amerikanischen Kammer.

Am Freitagabend folgte die Einladung zum Presidential Dinner an der United Nations, die eigens für diesen Anlass zur späten Abendstunde geöffnet wurde.

Zum Abschluss wurde uns am Samstag eine Tour in der UN New York angeboten. Kurz: ein spannender Summit der zwei wesentliche Fragen aufwirft: Wie können wir als LOM zur Erreichung der Millennium Development Goals beitragen? Was kann ich als Einzelperson tun? Meine Meinung: zusammen sind wir stark. Lass uns eine positive Veränderung machen!“

This is part of the report prepared (in German) by our dear JCI member Cornelia, great job Conny!!!

308 Mitglieder der Jungen Wirtschaftskammer der ganzen Welt versammelten sich vom 27. – 29. Juni 2007 im UN Headquarters in New York zum 2007 JCI-UN Leadership Summit.

On June 29th the JCI members kept with the new tradition, Happy Hour at UVA. What a great night, the Jaycees enjoyed special drinks in the heart of the Coral Gables. You cannot miss it next time! Thanks to Luz Castillo and Lisa Knight for organizing this great party!

JCI MEMBER PROFILE

This new section on the international bulletin is prepared to promote the international relationships and network opportunities between the members. We want to become closer to our international jaycees and to learn more about their interests, expectations and the way they see this great organization JCI.

We want to start in this first edition with Isabel Ung, News Director from our twinning chapter, JCI Ciudad de Panama in Central America. "Chavelita" became Jaycee in 2004 during the Americas Leadership Academy that took place in Ciudad de Panama. From her roots, China and Panama, she enjoys dancing, listening music and cooking, among other hobbies. She graduated as industrial Engineer and holds an MBA in Human Resources and Strategic Management. Currently she works at the Panama Canal Organization and she also will receive soon the CAPM certification by the Project Management Institute. In 2005 she became International VP, position that enjoyed a lot. As a board member, she attended the Area C Conference hosted in Sao Paulo, Brazil and the World Conference in Vienna, Austria.

We want to thank Isabel for sharing her thoughts and profile with the international community. If you want to contact Isabel please write her to IUng@pancanal.com. Please find below the entire profile (in Spanish) from our great JCI member from Panama.

Isabel ung

Chavelita, como le llaman muy cariñosamente sus amigos, nació en el seno de una familia clase media. Su padre comerciante y emigrante de China y su madre, panameña y oficinista de una agencia norteamericana formaron su hogar en la ciudad conocida como "La Tacita de Oro", Colón, localizado en el centro del mundo y corazón del universo, la República de Panamá. Isabelita, abrió sus ojos al mundo un 16 de enero, junto con sus hermanos Cecilia y Carlos conformaron el hogar Ung Ho. Siempre ha sido una buena estudiante, alcanzando el primer lugar en su bachillerato. Entre sus pasatiempos están el baile en especial la danza típica de Panamá, ver televisión, escuchar música, cocinar y hacer manualidades. Con un título de ingeniería industrial administrativa y un MBA con énfasis en Recursos Humanos y Administración Estratégica logra ocupar un cargo en la Autoridad del Canal de Panamá y muy pronto estará recibiendo su certificación CAPM como administradora de proyectos otorgada por el Project Management Institute.

Ingresa a la JCI Panamá un 11 de septiembre de 2004, por medio de su padrino, el actual presidente de la JCI De La Ciudad de Panamá, Edgardo Chung. Su juramentación coincidió con el ALA 2004 del cual la JCI De La Ciudad de Panamá fueron los anfitriones, siendo esta la mejor oportunidad de apreciar más de cerca el trabajo del área de internacionalismo. El ALA 2004 se convirtió en fuente de inspiración para trabajar como directora de asuntos y relaciones internacionales en el año 2005.

La oportunidad de conocer otros países y más aún el tener contactos alrededor de mundo es una experiencia totalmente diferente e inolvidable y la mejor prueba es el trabajo arduo realizado en su gestión como directora de internacionalismo 2005, viajando a su primera Conferencia de área C en Sao Paulo, Brasil y a su primer Congreso Mundial, realizado en Viena, Austria.

On June 30th more than 30 JCI members met at the Dolphin Stadium to attend a great baseball game between Marlins and Braves from Atlanta! With a beautiful day the Jaycees started at 3pm with the biggest Tail Gate at the stadium. Before the First Pitch the members tasted delicious grilled food and drinks (alcoholic and non-alcoholic). After the game the Jaycees enjoyed great fireworks and the final surprise: Joan Jett in concert!!

Thanks to Todd Hedges, the project manager, to organize this funny activity to finish this month.
